Orland Park, IL

Orland Park is a village located in Cook County, Illinois; 25 miles southwest of Chicago. Orland Park is close to several interstate highways and linked to the Chicago Loop via the Metra commuter rail system. Orland Park's retail/commercial sectors remain strong, even in the current economic climate. The community offers many dining options, as many national chains are drawn to the area, reporting outstanding sales numbers for these locations. The village is home to Orland Park Crossing and Orland Square Mall. The mall is a 1.2+ million sf regional shopping center constructed in 1975, and recently purchased and renovated by national operator Simon Property Group. A myriad of national retailers, eateries, and services are located within these shopping centers, ancillary neighborhood centers, and at out-lot locations along the corridor.
