Buffalo Grove

Buffalo Grove is an affluent village located in the northern suburbs of Chicago, and in Cook and Lake counties in Illinois, United States. The town was named for Buffalo Creek, which was itself named for bison bones found in the area. In July 2009, Buffalo Grove was listed at No. 65 on Money "best places to live" list. The village is also home to two different annual festivals, one being the Buffalo Grove Days held in September and an Arts Festival held in mid July. Through-out the village, there are a number of various business parks.
