Oak Lawn

Cook County, 13 miles SW of the Loop. Oak Lawn lies just outside the southwestern edge of Chicago, and is one of the largest municipalities in Cook County. The intersection of 95th Street (the village's main east-west thoroughfare) and Cicero Avenue is one of the county's busiest. Oak Lawn stands as a mature community of more than 57,000 residents. Affordable homes in friendly neighborhoods and quality community services are complemented by a unique assortment of restaurants, business establishments and retailers. Thanks to its location just outside of Chicago and the close proximity to Midway Airport, major expressways and rail lines, Oak Lawn continues to be an attractive community for new businesses and prospective employees.
