Greektown

Greektown is a dining and nightlife district on the Near West Side of Chicago. It is one of the many neighborhoods that make up the Near West Side community and is popular with tourists and Chicago residents alike. Greektown consists mostly of restaurants and businesses, although a cultural museum and an annual parade and festival highlight the continuation of Greek Heritage in Chicago. Greektown's bars and restaurants lie roughly between Van Buren and Madison Streets, along Halsted Street, west of the Loop. Greektown is easily accessible via public transportation including CTA's Blue Line or #8 Halsted Bus Route.
