Lincoln Square

Lincoln Square is accessible through the Brown Line of the 'L'. It is on the corner of Leland and Western Ave., Montrose Ave. on the south, Ravenswood Ave. on the east and the Chicago River on the west. The North Side neighborhoods of Lincoln Square and Ravenswood combine the Old World charm of German village architecture and plenty of German food with hip, urban boutiques and retailers. The cobblestone stretch of Lincoln Ave. that most people associate with Lincoln Square is a picturesque row of storefronts that includes a gourmet cookware store, an authentic German restaurant and tavern, a European patisserie and an old-fashioned apothecary among many other unique businesses.
